Women's Business Development Council

Women's Business Development Council

The Connecticut Women's Business Development Council \(WBDC\) was founded by Fran Pastore in 1997 and is recognized as a pioneer in Connecticut's entrepreneurial ecosystem. Today, WBDC is at the heart of this ecosystem, as the only statewide organization focused on women entrepreneurs. Since their beginning, they have served over 15,000 clients, and assisted in the creation or expansion of over 6,000 businesses. Their clients represent a variety of racial, ethnic and socio-economic backgrounds. They've worked with women (and men) starting home-based businesses, main street boutiques, and multi-million dollar enterprises.

WBDC's mission is to support economic prosperity for women and strengthen communities through entrepreneurial and financial education services that create and grow sustainable jobs and businesses. From starting or growing a business to increasing income, the WBDC drives business success in a tangible and accessible way, providing the training and education necessary for women to launch and scale their businesses. WBDC is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that is dedicated to providing the tools and resources to help women thrive in business. They believe that when desire, education, and preparation come together, opportunities are created, ideas are ignited, and economies are expanded. They help businesses reach beyond where they are and grow to the next level.
